

Priyadarshani Tennakoon

CONTEMPORARY ARTIST · SRI LANKA

Priyadarshani Tennakoon is a Sri Lankan contemporary abstract artist. She makes richly textured paintings where imagination and nature meet, and the reading is left open to the viewer. She began her creative path in 2010 with hand-painted greeting cards, and is the founder of Anuhasa Creations, which grew from cards, handcrafted florals, and wall hangings into a dedicated painting practice. Her debut solo exhibition, To Wait for What Appears, was held at the Lionel Wendt Art Gallery, Colombo, in August 2026.

SOLO EXHIBITIONS

August 2026 To Wait for What Appears, Lionel Wendt Art Gallery, Colombo
Debut solo exhibition of paintings · 14–16 August 2026

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

December 2026 A Grammar of Color, Lionel Wendt Art Gallery, Colombo
Group exhibition of seven artists · 18–20 December 2026 (forthcoming)

April–May 2026 Vivid Echoes, San Melie Contemporary Art Gallery, Colombo
Group exhibition of four artists, Sapumal Foundation premises · 30 April–24 May 2026

ART FAIRS & FESTIVALS

May 2026 Warna, A Festival of Art, Havelock City Mall, Colombo
23–24 May 2026

May 2025 Warna Art Festival, Havelock City Mall, Colombo
24–25 May 2025

2010–present Kala Pola Open-Air Art Fair, Colombo
Annual participation

PRESS

September 2026 “To Wait for What Appears,” Daily News
Feature article · 4 September 2026

May 2026 “Vivid Echoes,” Sunday Observer
17 May 2026

TRAINING

2012 International Fine Art Academy Workshop Series, Indore, India

CREATIVE PRACTICE

2010–present Founder, Anuhasa Creations
Hand-painted greeting cards, handcrafted florals, and wall hangings, grown into a dedicated painting practice